ATLANTIC SYMPOSIUM

September 10 & 11, 2009

Centre for Financial Studies
University of New Brunswick (Fredericton)

Investment professionals. Keep your knowledge current. futures Atlantic Symposium is the top investment conference in the Atlantic region.

Business, math, economics students. Get up the knowledge curve to work as an investment professional. Combine your university education with practical information from industry thought leaders .

Fewer jobs are available and the competition is fierce. Students must be proactive.

Now in its 4th year, you can't afford to miss this opportunity. Whether you're a university student or an industry professional you'll learn about current topics from industry leaders.

This year we've given conference attendees more opportunities to speak with investment professionals. Learn about investment topics from key professionals at the small group mentoring forum.

Early bird pricing available until July 31, 2009. For further details or to register online for the Symposium or for the Sept. 11, 2009 post-conference Value Investing workshop (1:30 – 3:30pm), visit www.futuresatlantic.com
